PRESS COMMUNIQUÉ.

Dated Fort St. George, the 30th April 1938.

No. 406.—

The age-limits originally adopted by the Labour department for the grant of scholarships to depressed classes pupils admitted to a University course were as follows :—

Junior Intermediate	20	on 1st July.
Senior Intermediate	21	,,
Junior B.A.	22	,,
Senior B.A.	23	,,

In the year 1936–37, the age-limit for Junior Intermediate scholarships was reduced from 20 to 18 and a corresponding change was adopted for the Senior Intermediate and B.A. classes. As there is a dearth of qualified candidates for the posts reserved for them in Public Services and as the Government have raised from 25 to 27 the maximum age for entertainment of members of these classes in respect of certain posts, Government have now decided to fix 19 on 1st July as the age-limit for the grant of scholarships to depressed classes pupils seeking admission to Junior Intermediate class. The age-limit for the grant of scholarships to pupils in the Senior Intermediate, Junior B.A. and Senior B.A. classes will be 20, 21 and 22, respectively. The age-limits now in force in respect of other labour scholarships remain unaltered.

No. 525.—

In exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) of section 109 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XIV of 1920), the Government of Madras are hereby pleased to make the following amendments to the rules for the election of presidents and vice-presidents of local boards published with Local Self-Government Department Notification No. 295, dated the 23rd February 1932, at pages 181 to 183 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 23rd February 1932, as subsequently amended :—

AMENDMENTS.

I. In Part I of the said rules—

(i) In rule 4, after sub-rule (2) the following sub-rule shall be added, namely :—

"(3) Where the votes of the members have to be taken under sub-rule (2), a distinctive mark shall be assigned to each candidate by the president of the meeting in consultation with the candidates. Serial numbers shall also be assigned to candidates with reference to the alphabetical order of their names. The president of the meeting shall then announce to the members the distinctive mark and serial number assigned to each candidate."

(ii) For rule 5, the following rule shall be substituted, namely :—

"5. (1) At the place set apart for voting, the president of the meeting shall provide as many ballot boxes as there are candidates, the box of each candidate bearing prominently the name of the candidate in English and in the language or languages of the district and the serial number and the distinctive mark assigned to him. Every ballot box shall be so constructed that ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom, without the box being unlocked.

(2) The president of the meeting, shall immediately before the votes are taken, show each of the ballot boxes empty to such members as may be present, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it up, and place his seal upon it in such a manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal. The ballot boxes shall be arranged from left to right inside the voting compartment in the serial order referred to in sub-rule (3) of rule 4.

(3) Every member wishing to vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper, which shall be a blank sheet of paper on which the president of the meeting shall have, before the supply, affixed a stamp so as to indicate its authenticity. The voter shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place the ballot paper in the ballot box of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. The president of the meeting shall cause such arrangements to be made as will prevent the members who have already voted from having access to the members who are yet to vote.

(4) The president of the meeting shall then open in the presence of the members present the ballot boxes one after another, take out the ballot papers therefrom, count them, and record the number thereof in a statement. A ballot paper shall be rejected if it—

(a) bears any mark by which the voter can be identified, or,

(b) does not bear the official stamp prescribed in sub-rule (3).

(5) The president of the meeting shall then declare the results in accordance with the following instructions :—

(i) If there are only two candidates, the one who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes between the two candidates, the president of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the members and the candidate whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected.

(ii) If there are more than two candidates, the one who obtains the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and the votes taken again. If there is an equality of votes among all the candidates, or if two or more candidates lowest on the list have obtained an equal number of votes the president of the meeting shall ascertain by casting lots in the presence of the members which of such candidates shall be eliminated. The elimination shall be repeated until two candidates only are left, when votes shall be taken for the last time and the candidate who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been duly elected. In the event of there being no equality of votes at the final stage between the two remaining candidates, the president of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the members and the candidate whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected."

(iii) In rule 6, for the expression "clause (ii) of rule 5," the expression "clause (ii) of sub-rule (5) of rule 5" shall be substituted.

(iv) Rule 7 shall be omitted.

(v) For sub-rule (1) of rule 9, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely :—

"(1) The president of the meeting shall then make up into separate packets the ballot papers relating to each candidate, whether counted or rejected, seal up each packet and note thereon a description of its contents, the election to which it relates and the date thereof."

II. In Part II of the said rules, for rule 9, the following rule shall be substituted, namely :—

"9. Immediately after the meeting, the president of the meeting shall—

(a) prepare a record of the proceedings at the meeting and sign it, attesting with his initials every correction made therein; and also permit any member present at the meeting to affix his signature to such record, if he expresses his desire to do so; and

(b) publish on the notice board of the office of the panchayat, a notification signed by him, stating the name of the person elected as president or vice-president."

It shall be open to the Syndicate to appoint as members of Boards of Paper Setters in classical and modern Indian Languages other than Telugu, persons, who are on the staff of affiliated or recognized colleges or who, though they do not conform to the above conditions, are in their opinion proficient in their subjects.

In constituting Boards of Paper Setters for the medical examinations, the Syndicate shall so arrange that for each subject there are two paper setters one of whom shall be a teacher of the subject in the Medical College, Vizagapatam and the other, shall be one unconnected with the teaching of that subject in that college.

In constituting the Board of Paper Setters for teaching, the Syndicate shall so arrange that approximately half the number are drawn from the Training College, Rajahmundry, and the rest from outside that college.

The Syndicate may appoint additional paper setters, not members of the Board, to help any Board or Boards to set papers in special subjects.

4. The Chairman of each Board of Paper Setters shall be appointed by the Syndicate.

Examination Boards: Chief Examiners.

5. The Syndicate shall appoint Examination Boards in subjects or groups of subjects mentioned in section 2 above subject to the following conditions:—

These lists shall be based as far as possible on the lists recommended by the Boards of Studies.

Term of office.

12. Paper Setters and Chief Examiners shall be appointed for one year and shall ordinarily be eligible for re-appointment consecutively for two more years, the period of each fresh appointment, however, being only one year at a time, provided however, the time limit shall not apply in the case of Honours Examiners. In the interests of efficiency or continuity of tradition, the Syndicate may relax this rule in such cases, as it may deem desirable nor shall this rule apply to the case of Paper Setters and Examiners appointed for professional examinations or in subjects in which the number of competent examiners, is so small as to make it undesirable in the opinion of the Syndicate that the rule should be mechanically enforced.

Service in the Examination Boards for Honours examinations need not under the rules be taken into account when determining the appointment of Chief Examiners in the Pass and Intermediate Boards of Examiners.

13. (a) Additional and Assistant Examiners shall be appointed only for one examination at a time but shall be eligible for re-appointment as such for three more examinations, consecutive or as nearly consecutive as possible

Copies of these detailed statements, together with the recommendations of the Principals, if any, shall be forwarded by the Registrar to the respective Boards of Studies before the annual meetings of the Boards for their consideration. Canvassing for Examinerships will be treated as a disqualification.

18. Applications for appointments as Examiners shall be addressed to the Registrar so as to reach him in June-July each year and these shall be sent to the Boards of Studies concerned for their consideration. Applications received at other times will not be entertained.

19. Examiners who, at the time offers of appointments are received or later before they completely discharge their duties, take or intend to take leave other than casual leave, should immediately report the fact to the Registrar stating the period of the leave taken or proposed to be taken and the nature thereof.

MADRAS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' INFORMATION BUREAU.

President: The Vice Chancellor of the University of Madras (ex officio).

Vice-Presidents: The Director of Public Instruction, Madras (ex officio).

Secretary: Captain M. Abdul Hamid, M.A., M.R.E., B.A. (Oxon.), M.R.E., Principal, Government Muhammadan College, Madras.

The main functions of the Bureau are—

(1) To furnish information and advice to Indian students going to England or other countries abroad for general and technological studies.

(2) To correlate to colleges and other educational institutions in India information of a helpful character collected by the Central Bureau in London concerning the educational, financial and social facilities obtaining in educational centres outside India.

(3) To communicate with the Central Bureau on behalf of students before they start or on behalf of their parents when they are abroad.

(4) To advise prospective candidates for the Indian Civil Service and other competitive examinations held in Delhi.

Students of the Madras Presidency—and of the Indian States whose colleges are affiliated to the Madras University—who contemplate going to England or other countries for further study and relatives and friends of those who have already gone, are invited to correspond with the Secretary, Room No. 13, New University Buildings, Chepauk, Madras, from whom all necessary information can be obtained.

As all private applications from students sent direct to the Educational Adviser in London or to Educational authorities in Great Britain are forwarded to the Secretary of the Madras University Students' Information Bureau for his enquiry and recommendation, much inconvenience and delay will be saved for students by their getting into touch with the Secretary at Madras.

The Bureau maintains a small library consisting of the prospectuses, syllabuses and calendars of educational institutions and Universities in Great Britain, America and other countries, and students and other enquirers will be allowed the use of the library on all week days—excepting holidays—between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Candidates seeking advice from the Secretary of the University Students' Information Bureau, may interview him by previous appointment between 4 and 5 p.m. on working days in the New University Buildings, Chepauk, and at other times at the Government Muhammadan College, Mount Road, Madras.

MADRAS COMMERCE REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH 1938.

In many countries the recession in economic activity proceeded further in March and commodity markets remained depressed by the paucity of consumer buying and by the steady increase in stocks in some cases. The deterioration on the international economic front is reflected in the "Economist" index of the prices of primary products (September 18th, 1931 = 100) which fell from 148·2 on January 2nd, to 140·8 on March 15th, and it seems evident that there is at the moment a downswing of the trade cycle in progress. The international political developments of the month administered a further shock to confidence, the absence of which has been partly responsible for the decline of commodity prices. The intensification of world rearmament following upon the unsettled political conditions, is likely to create certain inflationary conditions and should result eventually in an expansion in the demand for certain commodities, but the further increase in Government spending in the various countries is probably rather a long-term factor for commodities than a short or medium-term influence, and it is perhaps a moot point whether the larger armament orders will be able to stem the downward movement of general business activity during the next few months completely, though it should, at any rate prevent the decline from becoming critical. Apart from the implications of the political situation, there is a considerable number of economic imponderables. As it has been so often said before, America is the principal consumer of various raw materials and commodities, and conditions in the United States are, therefore, bound to play a large part in determining values in other parts of the world. Business conditions in the United States have shown little or no sign of being likely to experience a major improvement before the autumn at the earliest, though it is possible that some recovery may be seen then, for, the economic background in that country is by no means so unfavourable as it was in 1929. Turning to the commodities in which Madras is interested, cotton showed a weakening tendency during March. There was a falling off in demand for cotton yarn from consuming centres. As March is the final month of the financial year for most merchants, there was not much buying of mill cloth and the condition of the local market ruled dull throughout the month though dealers anticipated some increase in purchasing in April. The tanned hides market was a little firmer and prices remained fairly steady. The tanned goat skins and tanned sheep skins markets were quiet and prices underwent a further decline. Demand for groundnuts was restricted and prices weakened. Prices of paddy and rice were steady. The pepper market opened strong, but gradually declined owing to lack of demand and closed weak. The ginger market also closed weak owing to a falling off in Indian and European demand. Prices of some varieties of cow yarn showed an easier tendency owing to restricted European demand. Values of copra and coconut oil did not maintain the slight improvement shown in the previous month and weakened. In consonance with the improvement in the Cawnpore market, prices of sugar in Madras advanced and closed higher. The demand for locally manufactured acids and chemicals during the month was fair. There was a pronounced fall in rubber prices and it is difficult to take an optimistic view of the outlook for this commodity in the near future.

GROUNDNUTS.

The demand for groundnuts slackened and prices weakened owing to lack of enquiry from exporting firms, and towards the end of the month to moderate arrivals of new crop. The average wholesale prices of standard varieties at the main producing centres were as follows:—

	Per candy of 651 lb.
26th February 1938	.. Rs. 21 to Rs. 23–4–0.
26th March 1938	.. Rs. 20 to Rs. 22.

PADDY AND RICE.

The paddy and rice markets were steady throughout the month. The average wholesale prices of standard varieties at the main producing centres were as follows:—

	Indian paddy per bag of 170 lb.
25th February 1938	.. Rs. 4–1–0 to Rs. 4–12–0.
25th March 1938	.. Rs. 4 to Rs. 4–13–0.
	Indian rice per bag of 170 lb.
25th February 1938	.. Rs. 6–5–0 to Rs. 7–4–1.
25th March 1938	.. Rs. 6–4–0 to Rs. 7–2–0.
	Rangoon rice, raw, broken, A-1 per bag of 180 lb.
28th February 1938	.. Rs. 7–14–0 } Madras.
31st March 1938	.. Rs. 8–2–0 }
	Calcutta rice (Nagara) hulled per bag of 164 lb.
28th February 1938	.. Rs. 7–8–0 } Madras
31st March 1938	.. Rs. 7–2–0 }

COCONUT PRODUCTS.

As a result of fair European and Indian demand for Cochin and Beypore soaked yarns, prices remained steady throughout the month. Prices of Calicut unsoaked yarns dropped slightly on account of less European demand. The market for Cochin yarns was easier owing to poor European demand and fair arrivals, though Calcutta continued to buy. Quotations for copra and coconut oil declined owing to large arrivals of copra and the declining tendency of foreign markets.

COTTON.

Tinnevellies.—As in the two previous years, the southern half of the cotton growing area received heavy rains during the picking time which caused serious damage to the quality of the crop. About half of the first crop had been picked when the rains set in and this is of excellent quality as regards class and staple. The other half of the crop still in the fields, however, is reported to have suffered severely. The northern half of the Tinnevelly cotton area did not sustain any damage as practically all the kappas had been picked before the rains which, moreover, were not so heavy in this tract. New crop business opened at Rs 185 per candy of 784 lb. ginned pressed cotton. Prices, however, fell steadily to Rs 166 at the end of the month. There was very little demand as local mills were not eager buyers owing to the strikes in progress. A restricted amount of interest was shown by Europe in the top grades, although this disappeared when it was known that normal high qualities would not be available. There was also a very small demand from Coimbatore mills.

Cambodia.—Arrivals of cotton from the Salem district were heavy towards the end of the month and they averaged about the same quality as in the previous year. Arrivals of Cambodia cotton in the Coimbatore district increased steadily and were of excellent quality. Prices for Salem average Cambodia fell steadily during the month from Rs. 200 to Rs 180 per candy. Best Tiruppur Cambodia opened the season around Rs 250, but declined to Rs. 220 by the end of the month. There was a keen demand from several Coimbatore mills early in the month for all grades, but subsequently the demand slackened. From outside the district there was no demand at all.

SUGAR.

On the removal of doubt in regard to a possible reduction in the excise duty on the publication of the Central Budget and the announcements of unchanged prices by the Syndicate, the Cawnpore market rose by annas three per maund and the Madras market responded in sympathy. In anticipation of still higher prices and in view of the low stock position, dealers commenced purchasing in large quantities from second hand dealers who quoted lower than the Syndicate limits. Towards the close of the month arrivals were heavy and demand was slack, as a result of which some of the weak stock holders sold at slightly below market rates. The market closed steady but quiet with dealers awaiting the further Syndicate prices which were expected after the 4th of April. Madras prices of North Indian sugars ranged from Rs. 22–2–0 to Rs. 23–6–0 per bag of two cwt. in March as compared with Rs. 21–8–0 to Rs. 22–8–0 in February. Upcountry markets witnessed a sharp rise in prices due to low stock position and higher Cawnpore rates.

TANNED HIDES AND SKINS.

Tanned hides.—There was a good demand in the market during the first part of the month and prices advanced. Subsequently, however, the demand eased off somewhat owing partly no doubt to the uncertainty in regard to the international situation. Prices, however, remained steady on the following basis:—

Tanned goat skins.—Business was very restricted during March, the market in Madras declining slowly from the beginning of the month. The tanned goat skins auction which took place during the latter part of the month in London, showed a heavy decline in all grades and more particularly in the lower grades. The amount of forward business was very small indeed but stocks in the market were mostly cleared up, as several shippers forwarded their goods on consignment.

Tanned sheep skins.—The market was dull and only a very few orders were placed for forward lots. Most of the skins were sent to London on consignment and the further decline in prices at the London Public Auctions made business in Madras even more difficult.

Shipments during March were as follows:—

Goat skins.	Sheep.	Hides.	Cow calf.	Buffs.	Bullcalf.

REVENUE NOTIFICATIONS.

STATISTICS—1937-38—COTTON—FIFTH OR FINAL REPORT.

The average of the areas under cotton in the Madras Presidency during the five years ending 1935-36 has represented 9·5 per cent of the total area under cotton in India.

2. The area under cotton in the Madras Presidency in 1937-38 is estimated at 2,536,100 acres as against 2,578,400 acres for the corresponding period of last year and 2,512,100 acres according to the forecast issued in February. The present estimate for the Presidency represents an increase of 1·7 per cent as compared with the finally recorded area of 2,512,194 acres in 1936-37. The final estimate of last year exceeded the actuals by 2·6 per cent.

3. Picking of cotton is in progress and may be finished within a month.

4. Normal yield is expected in Chittoor, North Arcot, Tanjore, Madura (irrigated Cambodia only), Malabar and South Kanara. A yield below normal is expected in the other districts. The estimated yield is lowest in Anantapur (67 per cent). Bellary comes next with 80 per cent.

The seasonal factor for the Presidency works out to 90 per cent of the average for irrigated and 80 per cent for unirrigated cotton the corresponding figures according to the 8 annas and Crop report of last year being 94 per cent and 86 per cent respectively. On this basis the yield works out to 505,200 bales of 400 lb. lint as against 497,120 bales last year which represents an increase of 1·6 per cent. The yield in an average year is estimated at 508,570 bales. It is, however, too early to estimate the yield with accuracy as much will depend on future weather conditions and their effect on the second crop and on the amount of damage done by insect pests.

5. The estimated area and yield under the several varieties are given below :—

8. Figures by districts are given in Statement No. I. Figures of area by varieties in the Central districts and the South are given in Statement II.

The rates should be written both in words and figures and the units in words. The tenderer should also show the totals of each item and the grand total of the whole contract, and quote in the tender a lump sum for which he will undertake to do the whole work subject to the conditions of contract, such lump sum agreeing with the total amount of Schedule A. This schedule accompanying the lump-sum tender shall be written legibly and free from erasures, overwritings or conversions of figures. Corrections, where unavoidable, should be made by crossing out, initialling, doing and rewriting.

Department current schedule of rates or to the Public Works Department estimate rates which are not open for inspection by tenderers.

12. The attention of the tenderers is directed to the contract requirements as to the time of beginning work, the rate of progress, and the dates for the completion of the whole work and its several parts. 15. The Executive Engineer or other sanctioning authority reserves the right to reject any tender or all the tenders without assigning any reason therefor.

The earnest money will not be received in cash or currency notes by the Public Works Department Officers, save in exceptional cases, where there are no treasuries or banks within the jurisdiction of the officer calling for tenders. When currency notes are given, the tenderer should sign his name in full with date, on the back of all the currency notes given by him, whatever their denominations may be.

The earnest money will be returned in the case of the successful tenderer and will not carry any interest. It will be dealt with as provided in the tender.

4. When a tender is to be accepted, the tenderer whose tender is under consideration shall attend the Superintending Engineer's office on the date fixed by written intimation to him. He shall forthwith upon intimation being given to him by the Superintending Engineer of acceptance of his tender make a security deposit of Rs. 1,250 in one of the forms prescribed in the Madras Public Works Account Code and sign an agreement in the proper departmental form for the due fulfilment of the contract. The security deposit together with the earnest money and the amount withheld according to clause 68 of the standard preliminary specification of the Madras Detailed Standard Specifications shall be returned as security for the due fulfilment of the contract. If a cash security deposit is made by the contractor he shall follow the procedure laid down in the preceding paragraph for payment of earnest money and such deposit will not bear interest. Failure to attend the Superintending Engineer's office on the date fixed in the written intimation from such office or to enter into the required agreement or to make the security deposit as defined in this paragraph shall entail forfeiture of the earnest money. The written agreement to be entered into between the contractor and the Government shall be the foundation of the rights of both the parties and the contract shall not be deemed to be complete until the agreement has first been signed by the contractor and then by the proper officer authorized to enter into contracts on behalf of Government.

5. The tenderer shall examine closely the Madras Detailed Standard Specifications, and also the Standard Preliminary Specification contained therein, and sign the Divisional Office copy of the Madras Detailed Standard

Specifications and its addenda volume in token of such study before submitting his tender unit rates which shall be for finished work in situ. He shall also carefully study the drawings and additional specifications and all the documents which form part of the agreement to be entered into by the accepted tenderer. The Madras Detailed Standard Specifications and other documents connected with the contract such as specifications, plans, descriptive specification sheet regarding materials, etc., can be seen at any time between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. on office days, in the office of the Superintending Engineer, Trichinopoly Circle. A copy of the set of contract documents can also be had on payment of Rs. 10 for each set.

6. The tenderer's attention is directed to the requirements for materials under the clause "Materials and workmanship" in the "Preliminary Specification". Materials conforming to the British Standard Specifications shall be used on the work, and the tenderer shall quote his rates accordingly.

7. Every tenderer is expected, before quoting his rates, to inspect the site of the proposed work. He should also inspect the quarries, and satisfy himself about the quality and availability of materials. The names of quarries, kilns, etc., wherefrom certain materials are to be obtained will be given in the Descriptive Specification Sheet. The best class of materials to be obtained from the quarries or other source defined shall be used on the work. In every case the materials must comply with the relevant standard specifications. Samples of materials as called for in the standard specifications, or in this tender notice, or as required by the Executive Engineer in any case, shall be submitted for the Executive Engineer's approval before the supply to site of work is begun. If the contractor, after examination of the source of materials defined in the Descriptive Specification Sheet, is of opinion that materials complying with the standard or other specifications of the contract cannot be obtained in quality or sufficient quantity from the source defined in the Descriptive Specification Sheet, he shall so state clearly in his tender and state wherefrom he intends to obtain materials, subject to the approval of the Superintending Engineer.

The Government will not, however, after acceptance of a contract rate pay any extra charges for lead or for any other reason, in case the contractor is found later on to have misguided the materials available. Attention of the contractor is directed to the standard "Preliminary Specification" regarding payment of sairgumage, tolls, etc.

8. The tenderer's particular attention is drawn to the sections and clauses in the standard "Preliminary Specification" dealing with—

(1) Test, inspection and rejection of defective materials and work.

(2) Carriage.

(3) Construction plant.

(4) Water and lighting.

(5) Cleaning up during progress and for delivery.

(6) Accidents.

(7) Delays.

(8) Particulars of payment.

The contractor should closely peruse all the specification clauses which govern the rates which he is tendering.

9. A schedule of quantities accompanies this tender notice. It shall be definitely understood that the Government does not accept any responsibility for the correctness or completeness of this schedule, and that this schedule is liable to alterations by omissions, deductions, or additions at the discretion of the Executive Engineer, Ramnad Division, or as set forth in the conditions of contract. The tenderer will, however, base his lump-sum tender on this schedule of quantities. He should quote specific rates for each item in the schedule, and the rates should be in rupees, annas, and in sums of three pies. The rates should be written both in words and figures and the units in words. The tenderer should also show the totals of each item and the grand total of the whole contract, and quote in the tender a lump-sum for which he will undertake to do the whole work subject to the conditions of contract, such lump sum agreeing with the total amount of Schedule A. This schedule accompanying the lump-sum tender shall be written legibly and free from erasures, overwritings or corrections of figures. Corrections, where unavoidable, should be made by crossing out, initialling, dating and rewriting.

10. Tenders offering a percentage deduction from or increase on the estimate amount and those not submitted in proper form or in due time will be rejected. Rates or lump-sum amounts for items not called for shall not be included in the tender. No alteration which is made by the tenderer in the contract form, the conditions of contract, the drawings, specifications, or quantities accompanying same will be recognised; and, if any such alterations are made, the tender will be void.

11. The tenderer should work out his own rates, without reference being made to the Public Works Department current schedule of rates or to the Public Works Department estimate rates which are not open for inspection by tenderers.

12. The price at which and the source from which certain particular materials shall be obtained by the contractor are given at the end of the schedule accompanying the tender form. Tenderers must accept the material at these prices, and shall quote their price for finished work accordingly. Notwithstanding any subsequent change in the market value for these materials, the charge to the contractor will remain as originally entered in the written contract. No cartage or incidental charges will be borne by Government in connexion with this supply.

13. The attention of the tenderers is directed to the contract requirements as to the time of beginning work, the rate of progress, and the dates for the completion of the whole work and its several parts. The following rate of progress and proportionate value of work done from time to time, as will be indicated by the Executive Engineer's certificate of the value of work done, will be required. Date of commencement of this programme will be the date on which the site (or premises) is handed over to the contractor.

Three months	12
Six months	20
Nine months	35
Twelve months	65
Fifteen months	80
Eighteen months, etc.	100

14. No part of the contract shall be sublet without written permission of the Executive Engineer nor shall transfer be made by power-of-attorney authorizing others to receive payment on the contractor's behalf.

15. If further necessary information is required, the Executive Engineer of the Division will furnish such, but it must be clearly understood that tenders must be received in order, and according to instructions.

16. The Superintending Engineer or other sanctioning authority reserves the right to reject any tender or all the tenders without assigning any reason therefor.

17. The qualifications of the supervising staff employed by the contractor in the execution of the work will be given due consideration in awarding the contract. The tenderers should therefore state in clear terms, whether they employ such technical staff, and if so, to give the qualifications of such staff and the extent to which they will be employed on the work.

18. The following items though shown in the drawings C.A. Nos. 162 to 165 of 1937 are excluded from the scope of the tender and will not form part of the contract:—

(i) Beds in the wards.
(ii) Benches.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to such recommendations of the Income-tax Enquiry Report, 1936, as have been accepted and to make such amendments to the Income-tax Act as experience of its working has indicated to be necessary or desirable. The provisions of the Bill (other than some minor or consequential amendments) are explained in detail in the notes on clauses below.

P. J. GRIGG.

NEW DELHI;
The 2nd April 1938.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2 of the Bill amends section 2 of the Act—Definitions.

Section 2, Clause (6A)—a new provision—defines "dividend".

To prevent the avoidance of super tax which would otherwise be payable by the shareholders by the device of distributing the profits in the form of bonus shares, bonus debentures or some other form which, as the law stands at present, are capital receipts and not income in the hands of the shareholders, dividend is defined in such a way that wherever the shareholders receive profits in any of such forms it can be treated as income for tax purposes. The definition also covers the case where a Company goes into liquidation and the accumulated profits are distributed by the liquidator to the former shareholders. Income is then defined in section 2, clause (6C) to include any dividend as defined in section 2, clause (6A), and also to include distributions from unrecognised Provident Funds.

Section 2, Clauses (5), (5D), (5E).—Appellate Assistant Commissioners, Inspecting Assistant Commissioners and Inspectors are defined as the result of the amendment to section 5 (clause 6).

Section 2, Clause (6B).—The inclusion of a minor admitted to the benefits of partnership in the expression "partner" obviates further reference to him in the Act.

Section 2, clause (11).—The definition of "previous year" is amended so as to—

(1) allow an assessee to have separate previous years for each separate source of income;

(2) to prevent double assessment of the same profits when the assessee exercise the option to change his "previous year" for the first time after his first year of assessment;

(3) to prevent double assessment of the same profits in the case of a newly set up business;

(4) to prescribe the "previous year" of the firm as the partner's "previous year" in respect of his share.

Section 2, Clause (15).—The definition of "total income" is amended and the clause as amended includes a definition of "total world income" which is necessary for the purpose of assessing non-residents.

Clause 3 amends section 3.—The object of the amendment is to enable assessment to be made on individual partners of firms or on individual members of associations of persons. [Section 23 (5)—Clause 23 (b), for example, provides for direct assessment of partners.] Throughout the Act the words "association of persons" are substituted for "association of individuals" in order to cover all cases of associations of persons.

Clause 4 amends section 4—Application of the Act.

Sub-section (1).—At present under the provisions of section 4 the Act applies to income which accrues or arises or is received or is deemed to accrue or arise or be received in British India and, in addition, in the case of a resident, to income accruing or arising outside British India if received in or brought into British India. The Bill enlarges the scope of the section by including—

(1) the whole of the foreign income of a person resident and domiciled in British India whether brought into British India or not;

(2) the whole of the foreign income from business, profession or vocation of a person resident but not domiciled in British India whether brought into British India or not. The other foreign income of such a person remains liable only if brought into British India.

These amendments follow the provisions of the United Kingdom law except in respect of the foreign income of domiciled and resident persons other than income from business, securities, stocks, shares or rents. Such income in the United Kingdom is taxed on the remittance basis whereas the Bill proposes to tax it on the accruing or arising basis. The United Kingdom provisions in regard to this class of income were not followed because in practice they have given rise to difficulties.

An important omission from the amended sub-section (1) is the proviso exempting income from agriculture in an Indian State.

Explanation 2.—Judicial decisions on the question of the liability to tax of income from "salaries" make it necessary to make the earning of the salary in British India the basis of the liability. Only pensions payable without India are excluded.

Sub-section (2) makes taxable the remittances made by a non-resident husband to a resident wife.

Sub-section (3)—Exemptions—

Clause (a).—The exemptions in the Act at present do not in terms apply to income from business carried on by religious or charitable institutions though in practice such exemption is given. This amendment gives legal authority for the practice but confines the exemption to cases where the business activities are in themselves a primary purpose of the institution or the work in connexion with the business is mainly carried on by the beneficiaries.

Clause (iii).—At present all income of local authorities is exempted. If a local authority makes profits from supplying a commodity or service outside its jurisdiction it is considered that exemption should not be given to those profits and this amendment gives effect to that view.

Clause (v).—The Privy Council (in Shaw Wallace case—6 I.T.C. 178) has ruled that capital sums received in commutation of pension or as consolidated compensation for death or injuries or in payment of an insurance policy or as the accumulated balance from a Government Provident Fund could not in any scheme of taxation be regarded as income. Specific exemption therefore is superfluous and the provision is deleted. (Note on clause 8 may be referred to.)

The amendment added at the end of sub-section (3) is designed to prevent the abuse of the exemption given to the income of religious trusts. It prescribes that the exemption shall not be given to income of a private religious trust which does not enure to the benefit of the public.

Clause 5 introduces a new section 4A. Owing to the enlargement of the scope of section 4 of the Act by Clause 4 of the Bill, residence and domicile have to be defined for certain cases and they are defined here.

Clause 6 amends section 5 which deals with Income-tax authorities. It has been decided to divide Assistant Commissioners of Income-tax into Appellate Assistant Commissioners and Inspecting Assistant Commissioners and to place the former under the control of the Central Board of Revenue. This clause amends section 5 accordingly and in addition includes amongst Income-tax authorities Income-tax Inspectors who are to have power to enter premises to make enquiries [Section 38 (2), Clause 42 (d)].

Clause 7.—Section 6 specifies six heads of chargeable income. They are now reduced to five owing to the amalgamation of sections 10 (Clause (10) (business) and 11 (clause 11) (profession or vocation). For the sake of consistency some verbal alterations have been made in the classification.

Clause 8.—Section 7 which deals with income under the head "Salaries" is here amended so as to make sums due under that head liable on the date when they are due whether paid or not. Advances and loans of such income are deemed to be salary due on the date when received. The object of this amendment is to defeat evasion by postponing drawal of salary or by taking advances or loans.

Explanation 2 read with the definition of "income" in clause 2 (d) nullifies for the future in respect of the payments with which it deals the effect of the Privy Council decision in the Shaw Wallace case (6 I.T.C. 178). [Note on clause 4—section 4 (3) (v) may be referred to.] To mitigate the hardship that would be caused by assessing accumulated payments of this kind at the rate applicable to the total income of the year of receipt an amendment is proposed in section 60 (2) (clause 70).

Clause 9 amends section 9 which deals with property income.

Sub-section (1).—The exemption given to property occupied for business purposes is restricted to property occupied for the purpose of an assessable business, profession or vocation.

Sub-section (1) (iv).—At present interest on any capital charge on the property is allowed even though the capital was borrowed for private purposes, and interest on capital borrowed for the purpose of acquiring the property is allowed even though there is no charge on the property. The amended clause (iv) alters the position so as to allow only interest on a charge to which the property was subject at the time of acquisition by the assessee and interest on capital borrowed for the purpose of acquiring, repairing, renewing or reconstructing the property. It further allows—what is not now allowed—an annual charge not being a capital charge to which the property was subject at the time of its acquisition by the assessee.

In order to secure that tax shall be collected on such interest or charges payable outside British India, it is provided that no allowance shall be made in respect of them unless tax has been deducted therefrom. There is a similar provision in section 10 [clause 10 (b) (i), proviso] and section 12 [clause 12 (b), proviso (b)]. Interest on a public loan issued before 1st April 1936 is excepted.

The proviso to sub-section (1) which restricts the allowances in respect of property to the amount of the annual value is deleted. As a result a loss on property will be allowed.

The proviso to sub-section (2) which restricts the annual value of owner occupied property to 10 per cent of its owner's total income is also deleted. This amendment remedies the present anomaly of the annual value of the property varying with the assessee's other income.

Sub-section (3).—Property is often owned jointly by persons with definite shares and the High Courts have held that such persons are assessable on the income from the property as an association of individuals. This amendment provides that such persons shall not be assessed as an association but that their shares will be included in their individual assessments.

Clause 10 amends section 10.

Sub-section (1) brings income from professions and vocations under the same head as income from business. [Section 11 (clause 11) is deleted.]

Sub-section (2) (iii) allows interest on capital borrowed for the purposes of the business subject to the condition that the payment of interest is not in any way dependent on the earning of profits. The amendment deletes this latter condition but withdraws the allowance to a firm in the case of interest paid to a partner and to any assessee in the case of interest payable without British India (not being on a public loan issued before 1st April 1936) except interest from which tax has been deducted [see section 9 (i) (iv), Clause 9].

Sub-section 2 (vi) as amended alters the basis upon which depreciation allowance is to be calculated from the "original cost" to the original cost less the sums previously allowed for depreciation, and except in the case of unabsorbed depreciation which the assessee is entitled at the commencement of the amending Act to carry forward to a succeeding year, it treats depreciation on the same footing as any other expense of the business. Consequently depreciation for any year subsequent to the commencement of the amending Act can only be carried forward for as long as any other loss can be carried forward. But the unabsorbed depreciation at the commencement of the amending Act may be carried forward until fully allowed and is to be allowed before the depreciation due in respect of subsequent years.

It is found in practice that frequently the assessee writes off in his accounts much less than the amount of depreciation at the prescribed rates. Proviso (b) to section 10 (2) (vi) has therefore been amended so as to restrict the allowance for depreciation to the amount written off in the assessee's accounts.

Sub-section (2) (vii) prescribes the allowance for machinery or plant sold or discarded in consequence of its having become obsolete. This allowance is now to be given in respect of any machinery or plant sold or discarded and is to be the difference between the excess of the written down value over the sale price or scrap value provided that this amount is written off in the books of the assessee. Any excess of the sale price or scrap value over the written down value is to be treated as an assessable profit.

Sub-section (2) (xi), a new provision, which gives an allowance in respect of bad and doubtful debts written off in the accounts of the assessee.

Five new sub-sections (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) are added in section 10 after sub-section (2). Sub-section (3) gives in the case of assets not wholly used for the purposes of the business a proportionate part of the allowance for insurance premia, repairs, depreciation and obsolescence.

Sub-section (4) repeats the present proviso to section 10 (2) (ix) forbidding the allowance of cesses, rates or taxes on business profits and also forbids (a) the allowance of sums chargeable under the head "salaries if payable without British India" and tax is not deducted therefrom, (b) payments by a firm to any partner and (c) payments by an employer to a Provident or other such fund if he has not made effective arrangements to have tax deducted from payments made from the fund.

The disallowance of salary payments abroad is repeated in section 12 (3), proviso (c)—(Clause 12). The disallowance in respect of Provident Funds is necessary because in practice it is found that payments of accumulated balances from such fund are made abroad and the Income-tax authorities have no means of recovering tax on them.

Sub-section (5) contains definitions the chief of which is the definition of "written down value" for the purpose of depreciation and obsolescence allowances. 'Plant' is defined as including books purchased for the purpose of the business, profession and vocation.

Sub-section (6) makes liable to tax the profits of a trade, professional or similar association performing services for its members for remuneration.

Sub-section (7) repeats sub-section (3) of section 31.

Clause 12 amends section 12.

Sub-section (2) as amended disallows interest (other than interest on a public loan issued before 1st April 1939) and 'salaries' payable without British India from which tax has not been deducted. [Compare amended sections 9 (i) (ic), proviso (clause 9), 10 (2) (xv), proviso and 10 (4) (a) (clause 10)].

Sub-section (3)—a new provision—grants depreciation on machinery, plant and furniture let out on hire. If the business of the assessee is letting machinery, plant and furniture on hire he will be entitled to the allowance under the provisions of section 10 (2) (vi)

Clause 14 amends section 14.

Sub-section (2) (a) exempts from taxation dividends of companies whose profits have been assessed to tax. This provision needed amendment as the result of a Privy Council decision that it exempts the whole dividend even when only part of the Company's profits have been taxed. Instead of amending it, it has been decided to delete it and amend section 16 (2) and section 18 (5) [clauses 16 (2) and 18]. The result of these changes will be that a dividend will no longer be exempt. It will be on the same footing as interest on securities and credit for the appropriate amount of tax on it will be given in the assessment. Other sections affected are sections 48 and 49 (Clauses 51 and 53).

Sub-section (2), clauses (b) and (c) of section 14 exempt the proportionate shares of the taxed profits of firms and associations of individuals. Since it has been decided [section 23 (5)—clause 23] to tax the partners of registered firms directly, this sub-section as amended relates only to unregistered firms and it exempts not the amount (which is now exempted) of the firm's profits proportionate to the assessee's share therein at the time of making the assessment but the portion of the firm's taxed profits which the assessee is entitled to receive This change is made in pursuance of a decision to take as the basis for income-tax purposes the actual shares of the previous year. The same principle has been adopted in amending section 25 (clause 30).

Sub-section (2) (c) of section 14 as now amended exempts not the amount which a member of an association receives but the amount that he is entitled to receive

Clause 15.—Section 15 gives exemption in the case of life insurance premia and payments to Provident Funds and limits the exemption in respect of those payments and payments to Family Pension Funds to one-sixth of total income In the case of large incomes this is too generous an allowance and therefore sub-section (3) as amended limits it to Rs 6,000

Sub-section (4)—a new provision—prescribes that the foregoing exemption shall be given at the average of the rates applicable to the total income This method of giving the exemption is based on the "slab" system which it is proposed to adopt in future in prescribing rates of income-tax in the annual Finance Act. Under the present system of rates of income-tax, tax is charged at the same rate on the whole income; under the slab system progressive rates are applied to successive slices of income. This is the system now in operation for the charge of super-tax.

Clause 16.—Section 18 specifies certain sums which are to be included in "total income". It is amended by this clause in the following ways:—

Sub-section (2) (b), a new provision, prescribes the way in which the share (whether profit or loss) of a partner in a firm is to be computed. This method of computation follows the amendment of section 10 (4) (b), (clause 10) disallowing in the firm's assessment payments to partners

Sub-section (3) (c) is an important provision designed to prevent the avoidance of tax by the simple device of settling income upon another person whose rate of tax is lower than that of the settlor, or the transfer of assets, so that the income therefrom arises to such other person. This amendment provides that the income in such a case is to be treated as the income of the settlor or transferor. Where, however, the assets are irrevocably transferred to another person, other than in the circumstances dealt with in sub-section (3) (b) or in clause 43, the income therefrom is not to be deemed to be income of the transferor.

Sub-section (5) of section 18 provides for the inclusion in "total income" of the tax on the dividend along with the dividend. As amended it provides for the inclusion in "total income" of only the appropriate amount of tax in the case of a dividend from partly taxed profits (see note on clause 14). The form of the sub-section has been altered to suit the definition of "dividend" in section 2 (6A), (clause 2).

Sub-section (6) (b)—The wording of this clause has been found to be defective as it may be possible for a person to transfer income to an association of individuals which includes a person other than that individual or his wife but in such circumstances that the income becomes the income of the wife or minor child For this reason the words "consisting of such individual and his wife" are being omitted and the words "for the benefit of his wife or a minor child or both" are being added. It will be seen that the provisions in sub-section (1) (c) cover all cases of transfers of income and also cover cases of revocable transfers of assets. This clause as now amended covers the further cases of irrevocable transfers of assets where the income accrues to the benefit of the wife or minor child of the transferor.

Clause 17 deletes section 17 (marginal relief) which becomes superfluous owing to the adoption of the "slab" system of rates, and substitutes a new section 17 prescribing the way tax is to be determined in certain cases.

Section 17 (1).—Husband and wife are to be assessed separately at the rate applicable to the total income of both, subject to an allowance up to Rs 500 in the case of income earned by the personal exertions of the wife.

Sub-sections (2) and (3) determine the tax payable by non-residents with non-taxable foreign income and persons with exempted income which is included in total income. The principle adopted is to calculate the tax (including super-tax) on the whole income of the assessee and levy that proportion of it which the liable income bears to the whole income. The important point about this amendment is that the rate applied to the taxable income is the rate applicable to the whole income. In the case of non-British non-residents income-tax will be payable at the maximum rate.

Clause 18.—Section 18 deals with the deduction of tax at source and this clause amends it in the following ways:—

Sub-section (2) as amended provides for deduction of super-tax at source from "salaries" and is otherwise amended to conform with the "slab" system of rates.

Sub-section (2B) a new provision, provides for the deduction of income-tax at the maximum rate and super-tax at source from "salaries" payable to non residents.

Sub-section (3A), a new provision, provides for deduction of tax at source from interest and other payments made to non-residents. In the case of residents it is not advisable to make such deduction because of practical complications, but in the case of non-residents it is advisable to secure the tax in this way if it can be done. Where deduction at source is not practicable, the payments will be disallowed in the payer's assessment (clauses 9, 10 and 12). Consequential amendments are made in sub-sections (3B), (3C) and (3D) [which are renumbered (3C), (3D) and (3E)]

Sub-section (5), as amended, includes Income-tax as a dividend as a sum for which credit is to be given to the shareholder in his assessment (see notes on clauses 14 and 51)

Sub-section (7), as amended, provides, in the case of tax not deducted at source under sub-sections (3D) and (3E), for its recovery from the company as well as from the principal officer.

Clause 19 expands section 19 in consequence of the amendment of section 18. Income-tax shall be payable by the assessee direct if not deductable and deducted under section 18.

Clause 20 reduces from Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 200 the minimum amount of the interest payment which the payer has under section 20A to report annually to the Income-tax Officer.

Clause 21 amends section 21 so as to make the annual return of salaries of employees verifiable. A penalty is provided in section 52 (clause 58).

Clause 22 introduces a major change in section 22 by prescribing compulsory returns of income.

Section 22 (1), as amended, prescribes compulsory returns and section 22 (2) in consequence makes optional the issue by the Income-tax Officer of the notice, now compulsory, calling for a return of income. This change in the law follows the United Kingdom law and it is intended as in the United Kingdom that the Income-tax Officer should (as he now does) issue notice to each person whom he believes to have on assessable income. The object of the provision prescribing compulsory returns is to enable the Income-tax authorities to deal with defaulters who conceal the fact that they have taxable income. It is not considered right that the onus of finding such persons should be on the Income-tax authorities and that provision coupled with the penalty provisions (clause 32) and the extension of the time for initiating assessments (clause 30) is designed to put the Income-tax authorities in a position to deal adequate with defaulters.

Section 22 (5) allows an assessee to file a return of revised return before assessment is made and so to escape an assessment under section 23 (4). He is to retain this right [see section 23 (4)—clause 23], but in order to prevent him escaping the consequences of submitting an original false return or evading the penalty for failure to submit a return (clause 32), the closing words of this sub-section have been omitted and a suitable proviso has been inserted in section 28 (clause 32).

Section 22 (5), a new provision, takes the place of section 38 (2) which is deleted (clause 42). It is considered that these particulars should be furnished as part of the return of income.

Clause 23 amends section 23

Sub-section (4), as amended, will not apply to a person who makes a return under section 22 (3) [see note on section 22 (3) above]. In the case of assessment under this sub-section there has hitherto been no provision in terms for refusal of registration to a firm. This has now been remedied.

Sub-section (5), a new sub-section, provides that in the case of a registered firm the partners and not the firm are to be assessed and that the partners of an unregistered firm may be assessed in the same way if they are avoiding tax by non-registration. A partner's share is to be his share of the previous year's profits (compare clause 14 and clause 30) and he may carry forward his share of loss. The firm is to be assessed on a non resident partner's share.

Clause 24.—Section 23A of the Income-tax Act, 1922, has proved practically a dead letter, mainly because it imposes upon an Income-tax Officer the duty of determining whether the profits and gains of a company are allowed to accumulate beyond its reasonable needs, existing and contingent, having regard to the maintenance and development of its business. The present clause substitutes a simple arithmetical criterion for the determination of the applicability of the section to the circumstances of a company in any year. Subsidiary companies, and companies in which the public are substantially interested are still excluded from the operation of the section, but the opportunity has been taken to amend the definition of "Subsidiary Company" so as to remove any doubt as to the meaning of the expression "a Company not being a company to which the provisions of this sub-section apply." The clause also alters the procedure under the section. Instead of passing an order to the effect that the sum payable as income-tax by the Company shall not be determined and that the proportionate share of each member in the profits and gains of the Company shall be included in his total income, the Income-tax Officer has under the present clause merely to deem the profits of the Company to have been distributed as dividends on a given date. The assessment of a Company to both income-tax and super-tax will therefore be made whether or not an order is passed under the section in its proposed new form.

Clause 25 makes a major change in section 24 and in the whole scheme of the Act by allowing the carry forward of losses.

Sub-section (2) is amended by a proviso which does not allow any of the partners of an unregistered firm to set off any part of the firm's loss against their incomes. In the case of a registered firm the loss that cannot be set off in the firms assessment shall be apportioned amongst the partners who alone will be entitled to set off the loss

Sub-section (2) allows losses in a business, profession or vocation to be carried forward and set off against the profits of the same business, profession or vocation. The period of carry forward is to be six years but to mitigate the effect on the revenue of this concession losses of the first "previous year" after the commencement of the amending Act are to be carried forward for one year, losses of the next year for 2 years, and so on until the full period of 6 years is reached.

The provisions regarding registered and unregistered firms in sub-section (1) are mutatis mutandis repeated in sub-section (2) and in accordance with the principle given effect to elsewhere that the liability or benefit should attach to the person receiving the profits or incurring the loss it is provided that in the case of a change in a firm's constitution or of a succession only the person incurring the loss will be able to set it off.

Sub-section (3) provides for the computation of the loss in an order in writing and its communication to the assessee (See clause 34).

Clause 26 makes it clear that section 24A applies to a person not previously assessed Clause 27 amends section 24B in consequence of the amendment of section 22 (1) (Clause 22) prescribing compulsory returns of income.

Clause 28 amends section 25 [by amending sub-section (3) and adding a new sub-section (4)] so as to give to the first successor to a business, profession or vocation after the commencement of the amending Act the benefit now given by section 3 to the owner of a discontinued business assessed under the 1918 Act. That benefit, viz., being allowed to substitute the profits from the end of the previous year up to the date of discontinuance for the profits of the previous year, is given because otherwise there assessed under the 1918 Act would be assessed for one year more than the number of years the business was in existence. Since clause 30 provides that whenever there is a succession the predecessor shall be assessed on the previous year's profits it is necessary to give this relief to the predecessor in the case of succession to a business assessed under the 1918 Act

Section (5) prescribes a period of limitation for claims under sub-sections (3) and (4).

Clause 29 amends section 25A so as to give effect to the principle (given effect to elsewhere, e.g., clause 30) that the assessment on the profits of the previous year should be made on the person who received the profits—in this case the disrupted Hindu Undivided Family.

Clause 30 amends section 26 by giving effect to the principle mentioned in the preceding clause In cases where a firm has changed its constitution or has been newly constituted or where there has been a succession to a business, profession or vocation except in the case of an unregistered firm (where the partners entitled to the profits get credit for the tax paid) the persons who are entitled to receive the profits are to be assessed on them. Provision is made for assessment on and recovery of tax from the successor in the case where the predecessor cannot be found or where he will not or cannot pay the tax.

Clause 31 omits section 27 which becomes unnecessary owing to the amendment of section 30 allowing an appeal against an assessment under section 23 (4).

Clause 32 makes important changes in section 28—a penalty section—which are designed to give the Income-tax Department more effective means of dealing with illegal evasion. The penalty is increased from the amount of the tax avoided to twice that amount; it is to include super-tax as well as income-tax and it is to be impossible for failure to file a return or to submit accounts or to submit other evidence in support of a return. To prevent hardship in the case of a person with no income liable to tax the penalty is limited to Rs. 50 and in the case of the agent of a non-resident the penalty for failure to file a return can only follow the issue of a specific notice calling for a return. Provision is also made [proviso (c) to sub-section (1)] to prevent an assessee escaping penalty proceedings from avoiding them by the submission of a return.

Clause 33 makes an amendment to section 29 (notice of demand) consequent on the amendment made by clause 23 (b) and provides also for the issue of a notice of demand where the Central Government succeeds before the Privy Council.

Clause 34 extends the scope of section 30 (Appeals). Provision is made for appeal in the following cases:—Assessment under section 23 (4); assessment resulting in loss, refusal of refund or full refund under sections 45, 49, 49B or 49C (section 50A then becomes superfluous and is deleted—clause 37). Provision is also made to prevent an assessee questioning an assessment on a firm or an order under section 23A in respect of a Company otherwise than in an appeal against the firm's or the Company's assessment.

Clause 35 amends section 31 (hearing of appeals) so as to give power to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner to admit fresh grounds of appeal and to direct the Income-tax Officer to amend the assessments of partners of firms or members of associations in accordance with the appellate orders in the firm's or association's assessment. It also gives him power to enhance a penalty. The Income-tax Officer is given the right to be represented at the hearing of an appeal. Owing to the institution of separate Appellate Assistant Commissioners it is considered necessary for the Department to be so represented.

Clause 38 deletes section 33A which prescribes the reference to a Board of Referees of an order under section 23A. Owing to the amendment of section 23A (clause 24) it is considered that this section is unnecessary and that the appeal can be heard by the Appellate Assistant Commissioner in the ordinary way.

Clause 39 makes important changes in section 34 which deals with income escaping assessment. The most important change is the extension of the period for making such assessments from one year to six years. This follows the United Kingdom law and in conjunction with compulsory returns (clause 22) and penalties (clause 32) it is expected to be a very effective provision for dealing with illegal evasion. Owing to a recent decision of the Calcutta High Court which narrowly restricts the scope of section 34 it is considered necessary to amend it so as to make it clear that it is applicable where the Income-tax Officer is of opinion that income has escaped assessment. This amendment follows section 23 (2) which has given rise to no difficulty in practice. The section is also amended so as to remove any doubts as to its applicability to cases of under assessment.

At present there is no time limit for the completion of assessment proceedings begun in time. Sub-section (2) provides that they shall be completed within the period of six years from the end of the assessment year.

Clause 40 besides making minor amendments in section 35 (rectification of mistakes) extends the period for rectification from one year to six years.

Clause 42 makes important additions to section 38. It gives the Income-tax Officer or Assistant Commissioner power to call for lists of persons to whom rent, interest, commission or the like in any year amounting to more than two hundred rupees is paid. It gives the Income-tax Officer and the Inspector power to visit premises and make enquiries. This only gives legal sanction to existing practice. It also gives the Income-tax Officer power when visiting such premises to call for accounts and stamp them. The object of this provision is to cope with cases in which false accounts are submitted for assessment or in which at the time of assessment the existence of accounts is denied. For failure to comply with the Income-tax Officer's request a penalty is provided in section 51 (clause 58).

Clause 43 amends section 40 so as to make it clear that an assessment can be made on a non-resident direct instead of on his resident agent. Further, in order to cover all cases, it changes the basis of assessment on the guardian, trustee or agent from assessment on what he receives to assessment on what he is entitled to receive, on the beneficiary's behalf.

Clause 44 makes alterations in section 41 corresponding to the alterations made in section 40 by clause 43. In addition it makes trustees assessable in respect of the trust income and provides for assessment at the maximum rate of income chargeable under the section which is not specifically the income of a beneficiary or where the individual shares in the income are indeterminate or unknown. In other cases the income will be assessed at the rate applicable to the individual beneficiary. Provision is also made for cases where part only of the trust income is chargeable.

Clause 45 amends section 42 which deals with the income of non-residents accruing or arising without British India but deemed to accrue or arise within British India. At present sub-section (1) applies to income accruing or arising through or from any business connection or property in British India. In order to bring within the net of taxation all income arising in a primary sense from British Indian sources, the sub-section has been amended so as to include income accruing or arising "from any asset or source of income in British India or through or from any money lent at interest and brought into British India in cash or in kind."

Sub-section (1) has been also amended so as to make it clear that either the non-resident or his agent may be assessed and so as to allow the agent to retain enough of his principal's moneys to pay the tax.

Sub-section (2) has been amended so as to put a British subject or subject of an Indian State in no worse position than a non-British subject or person who is not a subject of an Indian State.

Sub-section (3), a new provision, narrows the scope of the whole section by confining it to that part of the profits attributable to operations in British India.

Clause 46 expands section 44 so as to include cases of business, profession or vocation discontinued by an association of persons as well as a firm and makes members of such an association liable to assessment on the firm's or association's profits as well as for the tax payable.

Clause 47 remedies a minor defect in section 44C.

Clause 48 introduces a new Chapter dealing with a particular type of evasion.

One of the methods of avoiding the payment of tax without breaking the law is to transfer the assets from which the income arises to a Company which is resident outside British India, and then to receive payments from that Company in a form and in such circumstances that the amounts received from the Company are never in fact repayable or repaid to it. The effect of these arrangements is that the real owner of the assets receives the income therefrom indirectly and in a capital form. These receipts cannot, as the law stands at present, be treated as income in the hands of the recipient, nor, since the Company is a non-resident Company, can it be subjected to the provisions of section 23A which deals with a Company which, to enable its proprietor to avoid super-tax, fails to distribute its income.

It is the object of the present clause to prevent the loss of tax through such devices. It will be seen that the first effect of a device of this kind is that the income which in reality is the income of a person liable to pay income-tax or super-tax or both becomes the income of a non-resident person (which term, of course, includes a Company) which is either not liable or liable for only a smaller amount of tax. By means of the loans the real proprietor continues to have power to enjoy the income from the assets.

It is difficult, if not impossible, to draft a simple preventive clause which a skilled lawyer cannot evade. The clause has, therefore, been drafted in wide terms and follows the wording of section 18 of the United Kingdom Finance Act, 1936. Its terms are very comprehensive, and the net effect intended is that wherever income which really belongs to a person liable to income-tax and super-tax becomes by means of an artificial set of transactions the income of somebody liable to pay less tax or no tax at all, such income can for tax purposes be treated as the income of the person to whom it really belongs.

Clause 50 amends section 46 (7) to accord with the scheme of the Act which prescribes the financial year as the assessment year.

Clause 51 makes sweeping changes in section 48 which deals with refunds of tax on dividends, of tax paid by registered firms and, of tax deducted at source. The section in its reference to rates is unnecessarily cumbrous; it would no longer apply to registered firms whose partners are to be assessed directly (Section 23 (5)—clause 23) and it leaves the position regarding double income-tax relief in doubt. Instead of the main provisions of the section a simple provision has been inserted giving an assessable person (Section 3) a refund of any excess tax paid by him or on his behalf or treated as so paid over the amount with which he was properly chargeable. (As to dividend, see Section 18 (5)—clause 18.) The amended section does not require any distinction to be made between British and non-British subjects as their rates of tax are dealt with elsewhere (see section 17 (2)—clause 17).

Clause 52 omits section 48A which the amendment of section 48 (clause 51 above) makes superfluous.

Clause 53 amends section 49 which deals with double income-tax relief. The amendments accomplish the following objects:—Relief is restricted to half the Indian rate; the relief granted to the Company is taken into account in computing the refund admissible to the shareholder under section 48, and any excess relief granted to the Company over the relief admissible to the shareholder can be recovered from him.

These are the main objects of the amendments and they are designed to prevent any assessee getting more relief than he is entitled to. The other amendments in the section are only technical improvements on the existing provisions.

Clause 55 amends section 50 which prescribes a period of limitation for claims to refunds. The period is extended from one year to six years in accordance with a similar extension in other sections (Sections 34 and 35).

Clause 57 (the omission of section 50A) follows the amendment of section 30 (clause 34).

Clause 58.—Note on clause 42 may be referred to.

Clause 59.—Note on clause 21 may be referred to. Section 62 is also amended so as to make it clear that action under any relevant section of the Indian Penal Code is open to the Income-tax authorities.

Clause 61 amends section 54 which forbids disclosure of information contained in income-tax proceedings. Certain self-explanatory clauses are added to the existing clauses which permit such disclosure.

Clause 62 amends section 55, the super-tax charging section, by exempting a member of an association of persons from super-tax where the income of the association has been assessed to super-tax. It also takes out of the exemption given to partners of unregistered firms the case (section 23 (5) (b)—clause 23) of an unregistered firm assessed as a registered firm.

Clause 64.—Section 57 makes the resident partners of a firm responsible for the super-tax on a non-resident's share of profits. The amended section 23 (5) (a) [clause 23 (b)] makes this section superfluous and it is therefore omitted.

Clause 65 makes consequential amendments in section 58 which deals with the application of the provisions of the Act to super-tax.

Clause 67 amends section 58F (Recognised Provident Funds). The limit of exemption is cut down to Rs. 6,000 as in section 15 (clause 15) and in order to simplify the provision regarding the exemption of interest on the employee's accumulated balance it is provided that such interest shall be exempted in so far as it does not exceed one-third of the employee's salary for the year.

Clause 68.—It is the intention to give the benefits of participation in a recognised Provident Fund only to those employees who have rendered continuous service with the employer for at least 5 years. Section 58C (3) is here amended so as to put the employee belonging to a recognised Provident Fund who has not rendered 5 years' service on the same position as he would have been if the fund had not been recognised.

Clause 69 amends section 58K (2) so as to ensure that an employer will not be allowed payments which would be disallowed under section 10 (3) (c) (clause 10 (c)).

Clause 70 amends section 59 (which confers rule making power) so as to remove any doubts as to whether the rules regarding the computation of profits of life insurance business are ultra vires in so far as they vary the substantive provisions of the Act.

Clause 71.—Note on clause 8, Explanation (2), may be referred to.

Clause 72 amends section 61 and is designed to correct abuses in respect of the representation of assessees. The provisions are self-explanatory and they give the assessee a wide field from which to choose his representative. The amended section does not affect existing Income-tax practitioners, however incompetent, so long as they are not guilty of misconduct in connection with income-tax proceedings.

Clause 74 amends section 64 (3) so as to debar the assessee from questioning the place of assessment after the time allowed by notice under section 22 (1) for submitting a return. Assessees frequently obstruct income-tax proceedings by raising questions of jurisdiction and the amendment is designed to check this practice. The sub-section is also amended so as to make it clear that the Income-tax Officer has to refer to the Commissioner before assessment a question regarding the place of assessment.

Clause 75 amends section 66 so as to allow the High Court in case of appeal to the Privy Council, where a refund of the tax to the assessee who has succeeded before the High Court is inadvisable, to authorise the Commissioner to withhold the refund. If the assessee succeeds before the Privy Council he will get the refund with interest.

വിവാഹ (ബന്ധം) മോചനത്തിനായി വിവാഹിത മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീകൾ ബോധിപ്പിക്കുന്ന വ്യവഹാരങ്ങളെപ്പറ്റിയുള്ള മുസ്ലീം നിയമത്തിലെ നിബന്ധനകൾ ഏകീകരിക്കുകയും വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീയുടെ മതം മാറ്റം അവളുടെ വിവാഹബന്ധത്തെ എങ്ങിനെ ബാധിക്കുമെന്നതിനെ സംബന്ധിച്ചുള്ള സംശയങ്ങൾ നീക്കുകയും ചെയ്യുന്നതു യുക്തമായിരിക്കയാൽ; ഇതിനാൽ താഴെ പറയുംപ്രകാരം നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു:—

ചുരുക്കപ്പേരും വ്യാപ്തിയും പ്രാരംഭവും.

1. (1) ഈ ആക്ടിന്നു 1937 ലെ മുസ്ലീം വിവാഹ മോചന ആക്ട് എന്നു പേർ പറയാം.

(2) ഇതു ഇന്ത്യയിലെങ്ങും വ്യാപിക്കുന്നതും ഉടനെതന്നെ പ്രാബല്യത്തിൽ വരുന്നതുമാകുന്നു.

ഭേദഗതിചെയ്യൽ.

2. ഈ ആക്ടിൽ, വിഷയത്തിലൊ സന്ദർഭത്തിലൊ വിരുദ്ധമായി വല്ലതും ഉണ്ടായിരുന്നാലൊഴികെ, (1) "മാലികി നിയമം" എന്നതിന്നു "മാലികി സമ്പ്രദായക്കാർ" ഉണ്ടാക്കിയ മുസ്ലീം നിയമം എന്നർത്ഥവും; (2) "ഹനഫി നിയമം" എന്നതിന്നു "ഹനഫി സമ്പ്രദായക്കാർ" ഉണ്ടാക്കിയ മുസ്ലീം നിയമം എന്നർത്ഥവുമാകുന്നു.

വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീ താഴെ പറയുന്ന ഏതെങ്കിലും തന്നോ അധികമോ കാരണങ്ങളാൽ അവളുടെ വിവാഹബന്ധം വേർപെടുത്തുവാനായി അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവിനെതിരായി ഒരു വ്യവഹാരം കൊണ്ടുവരാവുന്നതാകുന്നു:—

വിവാഹ ബന്ധം ഒഴിക്കുന്നതിനുള്ള കാരണങ്ങൾ.

(A) 1. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവ് രാജ്യം വിട്ട് ഒളിവിലിരിക്കുകയും അവളുടെ ചെലവിനായി യാതൊരു ഏർപ്പാടുമില്ലാതിരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്കയോ അല്ലെങ്കിൽ അയാൾ സ്ഥലത്തില്ലാത്തതിനാൽ അവളുടെ പാതിവ്രത്യം സംശയാസ്പദമായിരിക്കുകയോ ചെയ്ത:

2. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവിനു അപായകരമായ വിധത്തിലുള്ള ചിത്തഭ്രമമോ കുഷ്ഠരോഗമോ ഉണ്ടായിരിക്കുക:

3. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവു അവശ്യം ചെലവിനു കൊടുക്കുന്നതിൽ ഉപേക്ഷ കാണിക്കുകയോ ചെലവിനു കൊടുക്കാതിരിക്കുകയോ ചെയ്യുകയും അവശ്യം ചെലവിനുള്ള യാതൊരു മാർഗ്ഗവുമില്ലാതിരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്ക:

4. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവു നിരന്തരമായി (തുടർന്ന്) അവളോടു അസഹ്യമായ വിധത്തിൽ ക്രൂരത കാണിക്കുക:

5. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവു സ്ഥലത്തില്ലാതിരിക്കുകയോ കീഴ്കോടതിയിലിരിക്കുകയോ ചെയ്യുന്നതുകൊണ്ടു അവശ്യം ചെലവിനു വേണ്ട ഏർപ്പാടുകൾ ഇല്ലാതെ അവൾ സങ്കടമനുഭവിക്കേണ്ടി വരികയോ അവളുടെ പാതിവ്രത്യം സംശയാസ്പദമായിരിക്കുകയോ ചെയ്ക.

(B) 1. യുക്തവയസ്സു (യൌവനം) അടയുമ്പോൾ അവളുടെ ഹിതമനുസരിച്ചു പ്രവർത്തിക്കുന്നതിനു അവകാശമുള്ളതുകൊണ്ടു, അവൾ വിവാഹം നിരസിച്ചിരിക്കുക.

2. അവളുടെ വിവാഹം ആര്യം മുസ്ലീങ്ങളെന്നു അംഗീകരിച്ചുവരുന്നവരിൽനിന്നിരിക്കുകയോ പിന്നീടുണ്ടായ വല്ല സംഭവത്താലും അസ്സലമായിത്തീർന്നിരിക്കുകയോ ചെയ്ക.

3. അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവു ബലഹീന (impotent) നായിരിക്കുക.

4. ഒരുപ്രത്യേക അവസരത്തിൽ പ്രതിവ്യൂഹംഗകരാം തുടരാൻ പാടില്ലെന്നു വിധിക്കുക.

5. മുസ്ലീം നിയമപ്രകാരം വിവാഹമോചനത്തിനു മതിയായതെന്നതോന്നാവുന്ന ഒരു വല്ല കാരണവും ഉണ്ടായിരിക്കുക.

4. (1) 3 (A) എന്ന വകുപ്പിൽ പറഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്ന കാരണങ്ങളാൽ കൊണ്ടുവരുന്ന വ്യവഹാരങ്ങൾ മുസ്ലീം നിയമപ്രകാരം വിചാരണ ചെയ്തു തീർപ്പാക്കേണ്ടതാകുന്നു.

(2) 3 (B) എന്ന വകുപ്പിൽ പറഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്ന കാരണങ്ങളാൽ കൊണ്ടുവരുന്ന വ്യവഹാരങ്ങൾ ഹനഫീനിയമ പ്രകാരം വിചാരണ ചെയ്തു തീർപ്പാക്കേണ്ടതാകുന്നു.

5. വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീ ഇസ്ലാമല്ലാത്ത ഒരു മതത്തിലേക്കു മതം മാറുന്നതു കൊണ്ടു മാത്രം അതു തന്റെ ഭർത്താവിന്റെ വശം അവൾക്കു വിവാഹമോചനത്തിനു കാരണമായിത്തീരുന്നതല്ല.

1908 ലെ 5. 6. (a) 1908 ലെ സിവിൽ നടപടി നിയമത്തിൽ വ്യവഹാരങ്ങൾ വിചാരണ ചെയ്യുന്നതിനെ സംബന്ധിച്ചു നിർണ്ണയിച്ചിട്ടുള്ള നിബന്ധനകൾക്കുപ്പെട്ട്, വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീ വിവാഹമോചനത്തിനുവേണ്ടി ബോധിപ്പിക്കുന്ന ഒരു വ്യവഹാരം ഒരു നിയമകോടതിയിൽ ബോധിപ്പിക്കേണ്ടതാണെന്നു: എന്നാൽ ആ കോടതിയിലെ അദ്ധ്യക്ഷനായ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥൻ (ന്യായാധിപതി) ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ആയിരിക്കണം.

വ്യവഹാരങ്ങൾ വിചാരണ ചെയ്യൽ.

(b) (a) എന്നതിൽ പറഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്ന കോടതിയിലെ അദ്ധ്യക്ഷനായ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥൻ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം അല്ലാതിരുന്നാൽ, അപ്പോൾ ആ വക ഒരു വ്യവഹാരം ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജിയുടെ കോടതിയിൽ ബോധിപ്പിക്കേണ്ടതും—ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജി ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ആണെങ്കിൽ—അദ്ദേഹം തന്നെ അതു വിചാരണ ചെയ്കയോ, അല്ലാത്തപക്ഷം ധനസംബന്ധമായ പ്രാക്ടീസിലെയോ അതു കൈകാര്യത്തിനു ഒട്ടും ഗണ്യമാക്കാതെ അതു വിചാരണയ്ക്കായി തന്റെ ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ടിലുള്ള വല്ല മുസ്ലീം ജുഡീഷ്യൽ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥനെയോ അട്ടക്കോടതിയിലെ അധ്യക്ഷനെയോ ചെയ്യുന്നതാകുന്നു.

(c) ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജിതന്നെ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം അല്ലാതിരിക്കുകയും മേലെ (b) എന്നതിൽ പറഞ്ഞപ്രകാരം ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ഇഡീക്ഷൽ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥൻ ഇല്ലാതിരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്യുന്നതായാൽ, അപ്പോൾ ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജി എറ്റവും അടുത്ത ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ടിലുള്ള ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ഇഡീക്ഷൽ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്റെ അടുക്കലേക്ക് ആ കേസ്സ് വിചാരണക്കായി അയക്കേണ്ടതാകുന്നു.

(d) ഈ ആക്ട് പ്രകാരമുള്ള ഒരു വ്യവഹാരം സംബന്ധിച്ച വിചാരണ കഴിയുന്നതിനു മുമ്പായി ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ഇഡീക്ഷൽ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥനെ സ്ഥലം മാറ്റുകയും അല്ലേ ഹത്തിനു പകരം മുസ്ലീമല്ലാത്ത ഒരു ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥനെ നിയമിക്കുകയും ചെയ്യുന്ന സംഗതിയിൽ, ആ കേസ്സിനെ സംബന്ധിച്ച റിക്കാർഡ് വ്യവഹാരം ആരംഭിച്ച ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ടിലെ ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജിക്കു മടക്കി അയക്കേണ്ടതും, മേല്പറഞ്ഞ ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ട് ജഡ്ജി ആ കേസ്സിന്റെ കാര്യത്തിൽ മേലെ പറഞ്ഞ (b)-ം (c)-ം ഖണ്ഡസരിച്ച് പ്രവർത്തിക്കേണ്ടതുമാകുന്നു.

(e) വിചാരണ ചെയ്യുകോടതിയുടെ തീർപ്പിന്മേലുള്ള അപ്പീലുകൾ ഹൈക്കോടതിയിൽ ബോധിപ്പിക്കേണ്ടതും, ആ കോടതിയിലെ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം ജഡ്ജി അവ വിചാരണ ചെയ്ത് തീർപ്പാക്കേണ്ടതുമാകുന്നു.

വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീക്ക് അവളുടെ ഭർത്താവു ചെലവിനു കൊടുക്കുന്നതിൽ ഉപേക്ഷ കാണിക്കുകയോ, അവളെ ഉപേക്ഷിച്ചോ നിരന്തരമായി ഉപദ്രവിച്ചോ അവളുടെ ജീവിതം ദുരിതമയമാക്കുകയോ, അവൾക്കു ചെലവിനു യാതൊരു ഏർപ്പാടും ചെയ്യാതെയും മറ്റു ചില ചമിതാസ്ഥിതികളിലും വിട്ടു ഒഴിഞ്ഞു പോകുകയോ ചെയ്യുന്ന സംഗതിയിൽ അവളുടെ വിവാഹ ബന്ധം വേർപെടുത്തിക്കൊണ്ട് കോടതികളിൽനിന്നു ഒരു വിധി സമ്പാദിക്കുന്നതിനു ആ സ്ത്രീക്ക് സാദ്ധ്യമാക്കിത്തീർക്കുന്ന യാതൊരു നിബന്ധനയും മുസ്ലീം നിയമത്തിലെ ഫനഫിസഹിതയിലില്ല. ആ വക ഒരു നിബന്ധന ഇല്ലാത്തതു ഹേതുവായി,

ന്ത്യിക്കുന്നയിലെ അസംഖ്യം മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീകൾക്കു വിവാഹമോചന മായ കക്ഷികൾ നേരിടുന്നു. എന്നാൽ ഹനഫീ നിയമപ്രകാരം ബന്ധിപ്പിക്കുന്നതല്ലാതെ കക്ഷികൾ നേരിട്ടുന്ന സംഗതികളിൽ "മാലികീ, ഷാഫീ അല്ലെങ്കിൽ ഹംബലി നിയമത്തിലെ" നിബന്ധനകൾ സംബന്ധിപ്പിക്കുന്നതു അനുവദിക്കാവുന്നതാണെന്നു ഹനഫീ നിയമജ്ഞന്മാർ വ്യക്തമായി നിർണ്ണയിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ട്. ഈ ബില്ലിലെ 3 എന്ന ഖണ്ഡം A എന്ന വിഭാഗത്തിൽ പറഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്ന സംഗതികളിൽ വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീ അവളുടെ വിവാഹബന്ധം വേർപെടുത്തിക്കൊണ്ടു ഒരു വിധി സമ്പാദിക്കാവുന്നതാണെന്നുള്ളതിലേക്കു, ഈ പ്രമാണം അനുസരിച്ചു ഉലമാക്കൾ (Ulemas) ഫത്വ (Fatwa) കല്പനകൾ പുറപ്പെടുവിക്കുകയുംചെയ്തിട്ടുണ്ട്. ഇപ്പോൾ ഇന്ത്യയിൽ സർവ്വസാധാരണമായി കാണുന്ന പരിതഃസ്ഥിതികളിൽ മേല്പറഞ്ഞ സംഗതികൾക്കു സംബന്ധിപ്പിക്കാവുന്ന മലകീ നിയമത്തിലെ നിബന്ധനകളെപ്പറ്റി സംപൂർണ്ണമായ ഒരു പഠനം നടത്തിട്ടുള്ള മൌലാനാ അഷ്റഫ് അലി സാഹിബ് എന്നവർ പ്രസിദ്ധപ്പെടുത്തിട്ടുള്ള "ഹിലത്തുൻ നാജിസ" എന്ന പുസ്തകത്തിൽ ഈ പ്രമാണത്തിന്റെ ഒരു വ്യക്തമായ വ്യാഖ്യാനം (വിവരണം) കാണാവുന്നതാണ്. മേല്പറഞ്ഞ പുസ്തകത്തിനു തങ്ങളുടെ അംഗീകാരം നല്കിട്ടുള്ള അനേകം ഉലമാക്കൾ ഈ മേല്പറഞ്ഞ വ്യാഖ്യാനം അംഗീകരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്തിട്ടുണ്ട്.

മാലികീ നിയമം ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീയുടെ കാര്യത്തിൽ സംബന്ധിപ്പിക്കുന്നതിനു കോടതികൾ തീച്ചയായും സംശയിക്കുമെന്നുള്ളതുകൊണ്ടു, അനുവദിച്ച മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീകളുടെ സങ്കട നിവൃത്തിക്കായി മേൽ പറഞ്ഞ പ്രമാണത്തെ അംഗീകരിച്ചു നടപ്പാക്കുന്നതിനായി നിയമനിർമ്മാണം ആവശ്യമായി വന്നിരിക്കുന്നു.

3 -ാം ഖണ്ഡം B എന്ന വിഭാഗത്തിൽ പെട്ട സംഗതികളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചേടത്തോളം, ഉചിതമായ നിവൃത്തി നല്കുന്നതിനു ആവശ്യമായ നിബന്ധന ഹനഫീ നിയമത്തിലുണ്ട്.

വിവാഹമോചന കേസ്സുകളിൽ വിധി കല്പിക്കുന്ന കോടതികളിലെ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാരായിരിക്കണമെന്നതിനെപ്പറ്റിയുള്ള താണ് ഈനിയത്തെ കുറ്റം. ഒരു കാസിയാണ് വിധി കല്പിക്കേണ്ടതെന്നും അദ്ദേഹം ഒരു "മുസൽമാൻ" ആയിരിക്കണമെന്നും മുസ്ലീം

നിയമം നിയമിക്കുന്നു. ഇപ്പോഴത്തെ അവസ്ഥക്കു ഇതു സാദ്ധ്യമല്ല. എങ്കിലും ആവക ഒരു വ്യവഹാരത്തിൽ അദ്ധ്യക്ഷനായ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥനായ ഒരു ജഡ്ജിക്കു തീർപ്പു കല്പിക്കുകയെന്നതു സാദ്ധ്യമായിട്ടുള്ളതാണു്. ഈ ഉദ്ദേശസാദ്ധ്യത്തിനുവേണ്ടിയിട്ടാണു് 6-ാം ഖണ്ഡം ചേർത്തിരിക്കുന്നതു്; ആയതു തർക്കമില്ലാതെ ഒരു ജഡ്ജിക്കു ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥനെക്കൊണ്ടു തീർപ്പുചെയ്യിക്കുവാൻ വ്യവഹാരത്തിലെ കക്ഷികൾക്കു സാദ്ധ്യമായേടത്തോളം സൗകര്യപ്പെടുത്താം നല്കുന്നു.

വിവാഹമോചനങ്ങളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചു് ഒരു കുഴപ്പമുണ്ടു്. അതു ഇതാണു്: ബ്രിട്ടീഷിന്ത്യയിലെ കോടതികൾ, അനേകം കേസ്സുകളിൽ, വിവാഹിതയായ ഒരു മുസ്ലീം സ്ത്രീ മതം മാറുന്നതായാൽ അക്കാരണത്താൽ തന്നെ അവളുടെ വിവാഹബന്ധമോചനവും വരുന്നതായി വിധി പ്രസ്താവിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ടു്. ഈ അഭിപ്രായത്തെപ്പറ്റി അഭിഭാഷകന്മാർ വീണ്ടും വീണ്ടും തർക്കിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ടു്. പക്ഷേ മുസ്ലീം നിയമത്തെ പ്പറ്റി തൊറായുള്ള ഒരു അഭിപ്രായത്തെ അടിസ്ഥാനപ്പെടുത്തിയുള്ള നിയമ വിധികളാൽ ഉണ്ടായ ദുർഘടപ്പാടുകളെ കോടതികൾ വിടാതെ തന്നെ പരിഹരിക്കുകയാണു് ചെയ്യുന്നതു്. ഭാര്യയുടെ മതം മാറ്റം കൊണ്ടു വിവാഹബന്ധം വേർപ്പെടുന്നതല്ലെന്നതിനു പിൻബലമായി ലോകം മുഴുവനുള്ള നടപടികളെ കോടതികൾ പുറപ്പെടുവിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ടു്. കോടതികൾ കൈക്കൊണ്ട അഭിപ്രായത്തെപ്പറ്റി മുസ്ലീം സമുദായാംഗങ്ങളുടെ ഇടയിൽ അസ്വസ്ഥത അവർ വീണ്ടും വീണ്ടും വെളിവാക്കിട്ടുണ്ടു്. കോടതികൾക്കു പുറമുള്ള അധികാരങ്ങൾ നിയമനിർമ്മാണംമൂലം പരിമിതപ്പെടുത്തുന്നതിനായി ആവശ്യപ്പെട്ടു കൊണ്ടു് എത്രയോ ലേഖനങ്ങൾ പത്രങ്ങളിൽ കണ്ടുകൊണ്ടേയിരിക്കുന്നു. അതിനാലാണു് ഈ ബില്ലിൽ 5 മുതൽ ഖണ്ഡം ചേർക്കുവാൻ ഉദ്ദേശിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നതു്. അങ്ങിനെ ഇന്ത്യയിലെ മുസ്ലീം സമുദായക്കാർ വളരെ കാലമായി ആവശ്യപ്പെട്ടുകൊണ്ടിരുന്ന ഒരു കാര്യം നിറവേറുമെന്ന ആശയോടുകൂടി, വിവാഹമോചനത്തെ സംബന്ധിച്ച നിയമം മുഴുവനും ഈ ബിൽ മൂലം ഒന്നായി ക്രോഡീകരിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.
